Whether a hand raiser who can barely stay in their seat or one that's like an airplane flying high, Sami and Thomas encourage kids to participate and take turns, because asking questions can change the world!

Back of Book:

Help your child understand
The power of raising their hand.

Asking questions is what changes the world, but if we all try to ask at the same time, it makes it hard to communicate. Join Sami and Thomas in a historical adventure discovering the importance of raising hands and taking turns.
