Feminist Issues: Race, Class and Sexuality, Fifth Edition (5th Edition) Nancy Mandell

Feminist Issues positions women's issues at the forefront of Canadian concerns. Authors explore the range and diversity of contemporary feminist perspectives as seen through the lens of race, class, sexuality, disability, and poverty. Each chapter addresses questions and social problems that have received little attention in Canadian writing.

The editor, Nancy Mandell, has an excellent and widely-known reputation in the areas of women's and gender studies, and this collection offers a forum for all of the leading researchers and educators in Canada. The result is an innovative, challenging, and comprehensive survey of Canadian feminist issues today.
