The Seas of War Rhonda Mezner

Clive Matthews is a world renowned scientist with very dark secrets. He has changed the social landscape through his genetically engineered Reptilians, a hybrid species that can withstand oppressive heat and outdoor work conditions. In a rapidly warming global climate, the Reptilians are beginning to outpace humans for survival. Chaos arises after Clive Matthews and his wife die under mysterious circumstances. As the investigation into their deaths unfolds, violence erupts as the Reptilians struggle against their lowly place in the social order and their human masters. As secrets become public, the shocking revelations threaten to destroy humankind and its fast changing world.
