“Crystal and Lori have merged their poetic voices in a unique duet, exploring and experimenting with poetry’s various forms, devices and themes. Their works present different perspectives on love, family, and womanhood, in intriguing metaphor and narrative. The reader is drawn to the integrity of this collaboration of two artists who journal their feelings and observations with unflinching honesty.” –Carol Clark Williams (York City Poet Laureate emeritus, author of Stories of the Tribe, Music Lessons, and Escaped Without Injury Naissance Press)
