Time traveler and professional ghost hunter Molly Claire is one of the world's greatest unsolved mysteries...but that is about to change. While digging through her adoptive mother's photographs, she finds one image that shatters everything she thinks she knows about what happened before she was found, alone on that abandoned boat, dressed only in an old-fashioned nightgown and a bloody jacket. Now she has to return through time to the one time and place she never wanted to experience – the sinking of the Swallow of Taipei. Who are her real family - and are they the people whose screams have echoed through her nightmares since she was five years old? Will she make it back to the future she so desperately wants, or will she be forced to leave behind the person she loves the most?
