Build literacy skills and social studies content knowledge with the Forming a New Government primary source reader. This fascinating text explores the choices that were made after the colonies decided they wanted to form a new country. This high-interest book spotlights primary source documents and text features includes a glossary, index, bold text, and captions. Aligned to state standards, this nonfiction reader connects to McREL, WIDA/TESOL, and the NCSS/C3 Framework.

About Shell Education

Rachelle Cracchiolo started the company with a friend and fellow teacher. Both were eager to share their ideas and passion for education with other classroom leaders. What began as a hobby, selling lesson plans to local stores, became a part-time job after a full day of teaching, and eventually blossomed into Teacher Created Materials. The story continued in 2004 with the launch of Shell Education and the introduction of professional resources and classroom application books designed to support Teacher Created Materials curriculum resources. Today, Teacher Created Materials and Shell Education are two of the most recognized names in educational publishing around the world.
