Moments in a Lifetime: Short Poems Julie Mota

This is a collection of poems about a personal journey that has been an interesting and exciting one, exploring the daily lifestyle situations of people in Papua New Guinea. It explores the different situations and life stages and initiates a discussion on the values of life and family as an important institution on human relationships. 'Moments in a Lifetime' is an appreciation of the old way of story-telling or passing important anecdotes of life through the use of figurative impressions of nature. In Papua New Guinean culture, important lessons about life are taught through the study of the natural environment. It is a collection of the author's journey in life through interpretations with nature.
