Ray Ranglin thought he was done with The Corporation, but it turns out they weren't done with him. So when his old boss makes him an offer he can't refuse, Ranglin finds himself in Paris for the art heist of the century. Last century, that is. This is the Paris of smoky jazz clubs and black market politics, a city where people move in the shadows of Nazi occupation. Django Reinhardt and Hermann Göring make brief appearances. This is the story of time-travelling thieves and assassins who have quietly shaped the course of history, plus the CIA agents hot on their trail. There's action, romance, chain-smoking and guns. Lots of guns. This is . . .The World Behind Us
