The Crabfish (First Steps in Music series) John M. Feierabend

Classic folk music and colorful illustrations tell this funny tale of a husband who tries to help his sick wife feel better by granting her wish to dine on crabfish. This folktale, which has been passed down for 400 years through song, is now packaged to continue this oral tradition. On the enclosed CD the folk song is sung completely the first time through, while the second time children and parents are invited to sing along with the chorus.
