Time travel is a drug. It's taken four hundred years, but Ryan Mitchell finally understands that his power over the time stream is actually his addiction. His craving to time travel is what locked the year 2012 into its unending loop in the first place, but after centuries of torture, he's desperate for it to end. But withdrawal has sunk its cruel claws into him, and it's not letting go. Every attempt to quit ends in disaster. The only thing worse than detoxing is the memory of Tara Matthews and the love he sacrificed for his addiction. Ryan has tried everything to put that painful past behind him. That is, until he discovers that she's the key to his freedom. Now Ryan must fight to win Tara back and finally escape the cycle. To do that, he'll have to show her the real Ryan Mitchell: Student. Thief. Hero. Hermit. Heartbreaker. Time travel addict.
