This is a love letter to New York City. It's the city that 8 million people call home and countless others flock to each year as tourists, commuters, and sightseers. It's a city that defies neat packaging, a city that plays host to a stunning array of ethnic food, cultures, and people. It's a city on a schedule, with an energy and a pace that's constantly moving.

It's the city that's seen it all, been through the worst, and is ready for what's next.

I love New York. This book contains over 90 pages of full-color photographs that will give you a reason to love it too.
