Ice Cream Dreams Karla Kuskin

Karla Kuskin's poetry has delighted readers for a span of over 50 years. Much of it has been studied and featured in numerous volumes and anthologies and lauded with praise generation after generation. From her personal files comes the first and only collection of her poetry that has never been seen or published before. Each piece was hand-selected by Karla and illustrator Lewis Matheney for its debut in this exciting collection, "Ice Cream Dreams." Paired with Lewis Matheney's witty and comical cartoons which leap off the pages at every turn, the poems and drawings about everything from funny animals, giant bugs, loud children, and quiet children, to doctors, real estate, visits to the seashore, and changing of the seasons will become an instant classic and appreciated for years to come.
