The rapid pace of change in technology is unprecedented, yet we lack a clear strategy for exactly how we're supposed to keep up. This practical book lays the foundation for technology leaders to accelerate the learning that fuels our businesses and our future.

Author Vanessa Hurst, founder and CEO of CodeMontage, provides specific strategies for prioritizing learning in organizations, and for measuring learning in organizations. This book is the missing link between how adults learn, how professional learning drives business results, and how teams can incorporate continuous learning to meet the demands of a technology-driven economy.

Hurst also provides case studies from technology startups and grassroots communities.
