Going for the Green: On the Links with Canada's Business and Political Elite Robert Thompson

Going for the Green explores the thoughts, successes, failures, and philosophies of Canada's top business and political leaders as they play a casual round of golf with business and sports writer Robert Thompson.

Removed from the confines of their offices, these business and political dynamos relax enough to allow entry into their lives and their work, thus proving that more can be learned in four hours on the golf course than a week in the board room.
