Border Security and Enforcement: Department of Homeland Security's Cooperation with State and Local Law Enforcement Stakeholders Subcommittee on Border and Maritime Security, Committee on Homeland Security, House of Representatives

We are meeting on the Department of Homeland Security's level of cooperation with State and local law enforcement. For the better part of this spring, this subcommittee has tried to hone in on efforts of Customs and Border Protection to secure the Nation's borders since the security of the Nation's border is primarily a Federal Government responsibility. However, I think it is very clear that CBP and the Department of Homeland Security cannot secure the border alone. State and local law enforcement, first responders, other governmental officials can and should be leveraged to accomplish the shared goal of a secure border and safe communities.
