Veterinary Ethics

Jerrold Tannenbaum

Veterinary Ethics Jerrold Tannenbaum
This text discusses the various ethical dilemmas faced by veterinarians. It is comprehensive in scope and focuses on consideration of the client and patient in all decision-making. A section on high-tech procedures promotes awareness of the veterinarian's role and responsibility with state-of-the-art equipment, procedures and associated effects and costs. Case studies are included that allow readers to apply principles to real life practice situations. The author has worked with the AVMA to develop new curricular guidelines and practice standards, and lectures widely to veterinarians, medical researchers and the public on important ethical issues.
