Grandparents in Cultural Context

Grandparents in Cultural Context

The first book to examine interdisciplinary research on grandparenthood from a global perspective, Grandparents in Cultural Context brings together experts from 12 diverse cultures (including Asian, Middle Eastern, African, European, and North and South American cultures) to discuss social, cultural, economic, and demographic influences on grandparenthood. Each chapter provides a rich portrait of grandparents in a culture, drawing upon the research literature, relevant social policies, and anecdotal evidence.
