RIDING SOLO: My Journey Through Love and Madness Lee Ravine

For years I languished in a marriage that was both gratifying and frightening, never knowing when I would be elevated to great heights of ecstasy or plunge toward the bowels of hell.

Riding Solo chronicles a journey through love and lust, disillusionment and deceit, and ultimately survival.

When riding the merry-go-round from hell it is imperative to understand we are neither Sigmund Freud nor Harry Houdini. Our loved ones may lose their way even if the path to salvation is brightly illuminated.

If you or someone dear to you is struggling with codependency, domestic abuse, or a mental disorder, you owe it to yourself to read, Riding Solo: My Journey Through Love and Madness.
