This Blackjack book is a basic look at the most popular game in the casino. Currently in its 11th printing, the Money Management and Disciplines principles, outlined in detail, give the average player an excellent chance to compete sensibly at this table game.

This book covers Basic Strategy, betting procedures, and how to properly conduct yourself at the table. Like all my books, the emphasis is on the Money Management chapters and the reader is guided through the entire process of learning how to win.....
