Wrath and Ruin: A Chilling Anthology C. W. Briar

Some monsters are nightmarish beasts with fangs and grotesque bodies. Others come in the form of bad decisions we dread or regret. Both kinds haunt and stalk us while we are alone at night.

Wrath and Ruin is a collection of nine stories with a focus on fantasy and sci-fi threaded with quiet, traditional horror. Monsters, both literal and figurative, lurk in the shadows of this diverse anthology.

- Hunters pursue a ghoul in Victorian-era Pennsylvania.
- A psychologist interrogates the lone survivor of a mysterious shipwreck.
- Astronauts investigate a derelict alien spacecraft loitering in Earth's solar system.
- A man flees powerful enemies in a bizarre, hostile land

These stories and more are included in this debut book by author C.W. Briar.

Briar continues a tradition established by fellow Binghamton, NY writers like Rod Serling and Kevin Lucia: fantastical-yet-grounded stories with subtle horror.
