Large Print! Jesus shaped the world simply by living out his own life in the best way he could. His choices of tools were his own love and commitment, his own healing touch, and the clarity of his mission. This book is another set of stories of people around him as he carried out his mission from Capernaum to Philip's baptism of the Ethiopian diplomat. These people, having had their own lives changed by contact with him, then changed the world. Everything Jesus did seemed to require human assistance in some way, even if he had to bring it to bear on the task. Enjoy the book. The next book should be out within a year.
