When Anushka Peters is fired from The 'Bu for bad behavior, she blabs to the press and blows the lid off the show's scandalous and unauthorized blog, The 'Bu-Hoo. Now the blog has maximum visibility, and all the cast and crew's secrets are fair game. At first Max, the producer, isn't worried—after all, there's no such thing as bad publicity. Well, except when angry parents call for a nationwide boycott of your show, that is. Suddenly everyone's bracing themselves for the end, until Corliss has an idea so crazy it just might save the show... and possibly make television history in process.
