"A life in words – will it be poems or rather lyrics? Christian Appasamy writes lyrics full of heart and soul life – texts in which many young people can likely discover themselves. This collection of poetry is a treasure trove for composers and arrangers in search of deep English lyrics for songs about love and life. But even for young people I would put these texts quite fond - and if it is only to make them realize that life will go on, although growing up might be difficult sometimes." Britta Wisniewski, April 2014
