Grandchildren are such a blessing. How many times has a child said something so pure at heart or funny? Children are the most honest people in the world. One day I was thinking about my oldest granddaughter, Shauna, and I remembered how we would talk about frogs. "Her eyes are as green as a frog," I would say. I am thankful for this great opportunity to write books and share with you, but also I have this great opportunity to dedicate books to my grandchildren.
