Jaeda is back like a cat with nine lives as she proves to herself and everyone around her that there is no stopping her. Through tragedy after tragedy, we follow her for another bumpy ride on this highway called life. Jaeda will battle with her past demons as well as new demons that will try to set her back and break her down. Juggling love and the streets while trying to stay sane and find herself is all too much for one person but with the people that she loves behind her, Jaeda dusts herself off and tries again to make it out of the hood. Will love finally be on her side or will she be hit with yet another tragedy to set her back?
