Dare To Lead 2nd Edition Pete Pawelek

Dare To Lead is a ministry manual designed for leaders in all phases of ministry. This leadership manual is ideal for new leaders in your church. The twelve topics discussed will help new leaders develop a firm foundation and equip them to overcome many of the obstacles leaders face. The simple approach to leadership and practical examples make this text perfect for new leaders. Seasoned leadership veterans will appreciate Dare To Lead. The principles outlined will sharpen their leadership skills. Leaders will find refreshment, encouragement, and hope that will inspire them to press on. Church leadership is difficult, but this text aims to put the challenges of leadership into perspective. Upon completing this workbook, leaders will be better equipped to thrive in the mine- field of church leadership. Dare To Lead does not provide all the answers, but delivers the tools necessary to survive in the role as leader. “Thriving in the minefield of leadership requires a leader who is able to clearly discern and leverage his or her sphere of influence. This leader is able to move fast enough to get somewhere, but slow enough for others to follow and avoid dangers along the way. Finding the right pace is crucial on the minefield of leadership.”
