Excerpt from A Decade in Borneo

The first white resident in the territories of the British North Borneo Company and one of its most enthusiastic officers, Mr. Pryer, in taking up an independent position in the country as he now has done. Should be able the better to advance its interests. His faith in the future has long been established by his making North Borneo his home, and his wife is none the less earnest than himself in the work of realizing their unbounded faith in one of the most patriotic of modern enterprises.
