Prosper: A Success Book for Artists Kathy Beekman

Packed with tips and real life experiences, this book has been written by a professional artist for artists and offers crucial advice on how to reach personal artistic goals while also developing a sense of confidence. This practical and sensible book tackles the "big issues" that all artists face such as how to price artwork, approach a gallery, and remain organized and sane through it all. A must-have for all artists looking to rise above the rest. True to its title, Prosper: A Success Book for Artists is a proactive book which focuses on guiding rather than instructing the reader in making sound decisions in creating their own road to artistic success. Step-by-step guides help the artist to create everything from artist statements and resumes to marketing plans and networking strategies. "This book is an excellent guide for the beginning artist as well as a reminder to the established artist of the importance of the basics." Owners of Evergreen Fine Art Gallery, Evergreen, Colorado "Extremely informative and sweetly encouraging. Beekman's book is a must-have go-to guide for the emerging and professional artist alike." Connie Stose Vasbinder, Professional Artist
